BREMERTON COMMUNITY THEATRE UP NEXT

Run For Your Wife Aug. 30 - Sept. 22, 2024

Imagine being a London cab driver with two wives, two homes, and a schedule tighter than a drum. That's the life of John Smith, who's been doubling down on matrimonial bliss without a hitch until an incident sends him to hospital and his double life starts to unravel faster than a ball of yarn in a cat cafe. Cue the chaos as John, with the 'help' of his upstairs neighbor, tries to keep the wool over everyone's eyes. It's a whirlwind of close calls and mistaken identities that'll have you wondering if bigamy is just twice the trouble or double the fun.

AUDITIONS: Blithe Spirit

Winner of the 2009 Drama Desk Award for Outstanding Revival, this much-revived classic from the playwright of Private Lives offers up fussy, cantankerous novelist Charles Condomine, re-married but haunted (literally) by the ghost of his late first wife, the clever and insistent Elvira who is called up by a visiting "happy medium", one Madame Arcati. As the worldly and unworldly personalities clash, Charles' current wife Ruth is accidentally killed, "passes over", joins Elvira and the two "blithe spirits" haunt the hapless Charles into perpetuity.

AUDITIONS will be held at 6:30pm on Sunday, Sept. 8th and Monday, Sept. 9th at Bremerton Community Theatre. Rehearsals start September 11th. No monologue is required and auditions will be comprised of readings from the script. Audition sides and detailed character descriptions are available on the "Get Involved" page of our website under the "Audition" link. Performances will be Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30PM, Sundays at 2:30PM November 1 - 24, 2024. Questions? Please email director Trina Williamson at triwill@gmail.com.
